Wondrous Places to Learn & Grow

A two-day institute with
Margie Carter & Deb Curtis

Held at:
Medalta Pottery
Historical Clay District
713 Medalta Avenue S.E.
Medicine Hat, Alberta

Concepts to Explore:
Why does cultivating a sense of wonder matter in early childhood settings?

How can your environment provoke a sense of wonder and deeper engagement for you and the children?

How do we choose, find and offer materials to children that invite wonder, complex play and deeper inquiry?

What is the role of the teacher in the environment to provoke wonder and deeper inquiry?

What is the relationship between the environment, materials, observation and documentation to deepen learning?

For teachers and early childhood educators of children aged 3-6 years.

To Register:

Early registration : $325 (before June 30)

Late registration: $350

Registrations will be limited to 135 participants and will not be accepted after August 30.
